

I support the elimination of the morse code test to attain HF priviledges in the amateur radio bands. Morse is a great mode for those that enjoy it, but technology has passed it by. Please give ham radio the boost it needs and eliminate the code test requirement for HF priviledges. The IARU voted to do away with the code requirement and I would hope the FCC will follow suit. Thanks.

Jay Martin (KE4VRM)